Jesus taught as one having authority - having power of his own. When Jesus speaks or teaches, his words have power - for example in today's Gospel by driving out demons. In our lives, Jesus can free us from anxiety and bring us into union with the Father in the kingdom to come. Unlike all the preceding prophets, Jesus does not simply convey God's word and commands, he is God's word in the flesh. His power derives from the Father, for he and the Father are one.

ocesan staff, and Catholic schools. This event will be focused on providing an opportunity for you to encounter the Lord, network with one another, and come away with some practical insights for your roles as leaders in your parish's and organization's mission of making disciples. This event will be at Lumen Christi and begin with an optional mass at 5:30 PM, dinner at 6:00 PM, and conclude by 8:30 PM. Thanks to the Catholic Foundation these formation nights are free of charge to you as participants, but we do have to pay for the meals, so we ask that you register so we know how much food to have available. Please contact the office for the link or to register.
